

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Clarence McCrea, of the Bank of Commerce, Lethbridge, is spending his holidays at his home in Macleod.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Marks have returned to Macleod after attending the funeral of the late Lorne Walker which was held in Calgary Thursday afternoon.

A golf tournament has been arranged to be played in Macleod on Sunday, May 12th, between Lethbridge and Macleod.

Dr. Scott of Bassano attended a few foot on the lead speaker on his radio receiving set and the incoming concert could be heard several blocks away.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Pearson and family left Monday morning by automobile for Calgary where they will visit Mr. Pearson's parents for a short holiday.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon will be pleased to learn that their daughter Geraldine, who has been seriously ill for the past week is well on the road to recovery.

H. Dillingham, proprietor of the Industrial Province, and Mrs. M. Dillingham on Tuesday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Dillingham.

H. Dillingham left for Blairmore on Thursday, May 9th, to attend a ham proceeding by car to Shelby, Montana.

Last Monday being Arbor Day, a number of the residents of Macleod were seen planting trees and ornamental shrubs for future adornment of their property.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Marks, of the Rathwell district planted some two thousand trees and shrubs other farmers observed the day in like manner.

The death of Nils O. Asplund occurred at the Macleod General Hospital Wednesday morning, May 8th.

Mr. Asplund is better known in the Monarch district having lived there for many years. He was engaged in farming. Mr. Asplund leaves to mourn his loss his wife and eight children.

Jack Kendall, a C. P. R. fireman, fell from his engine the early part of the week and received a severe shaking. He was received in the general hospital for treatment where his friends will be pleased to hear he is doing nicely.

Current music copies are owned by Macleod people and considerable enjoyment is realized from their possession. One evening this was the representative of The Times had the pleasure, for the first time, of "listening in" on an audience on the experience is unique. An announcement that Calgary station would be heard was clear and distinct as were also the musical numbers rendered.

On a California station was picked up a lady singer being introduced who sang two songs very charmingly. The effect was such that the audience, by another voice, evidently in the neighborhood of Salt Lake City declared a lecture to an audience on the beauties of the stary firmament.

To eliminate this voice the operator turned on two or three small batteries, a modicum of sound followed. The singer's voice was loud and could not be picked up again and the show was over.

OF INTEREST TO THE SCHOOL

Owing to the large number taking part in the Concert in aid of the Macleod Commencement and Prize, it is necessary to divide the programme, so nearly all the children are very busy—some only one year.

May 24th.—"A Dream of Fairland." May 24th.—"A Dream from Snow White" and local talent with a medley of songs for children at 3. All the prizes in aid of the School Commencement and Prize.

SALVATION ARMY.

All day Sunday, the 13th, (P.V.), the meetings will be conducted by Dr. H. H. Hardy and party from Lethbridge; they will be glad to see you. Come, all things are now ready.

CUP MOSS GREY

By Alice Gillington

All on the hillside in the black and barren heath.

There are tears in the cup-moss that grows in the gorse beneath—Blossoms in the cup-moss grey.

They should have been tears of true repentance met.

To fall in silver cup at the holy altar foot.

They should have been tears of quiet gladness sweet.

These tears in the cup-moss grey.

Yet each grayer-cup has a rose and a ruby rim.

And it may be at the end of this day—A-dawning dim.

God's star-light shall sparkle where these bright drops over-her.

Happy tears in the cup-moss grey.

CANADIAN CANNED FOODS

STANDARDIZING OF CANNED PEAS

Grades Adopted by the Dominion are Proving Satisfactory.

We live in an age of grading and standardizing. It is a recent adage of Mr. C. C. McGillivray, Chief Canning Inspector of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, that the standardizing of canned goods is a necessary part of the modern food industry.

The grower will benefit, for when standards are established, it naturally follows that the grower will be paid for his produce on a basis of quality. This will mean that the grower will be paid for his produce on a basis of quality.

For quality the grades are standard. The grower will benefit, for when standards are established, it naturally follows that the grower will be paid for his produce on a basis of quality.

SETTLERS BECOMING FIRE RANGERS

During 1932, the Department of Land and Forests utilized 323 assistant fire rangers to improve the provincial system of settlers' districts.

These assistant fire rangers are selected in each range, among the most progressive settlers. They have authority to issue permits to burn clearances and also to enforce the law, which requires each settler to watch the progress of his fire.

They can also help and direct the fight back fire which may escape the settler or occur in the vicinity of their range.

This system of assistant fire rangers has become very popular, because it enables the settler to obtain a permit at any time, provided he has complied with the obligations of the permit, that is, if he has paid the duties of his clearing into the range or if he has cleared a strip of at least 10 feet between such haps or rows and the adjoining forest.

Of course the weather conditions must be favorable and there must not be any danger of fire. The settler must also have a permit to burn.

NEW AGNES AYRES
PHOTOPLAY AFFORDS
STAR UNIQUE ROLE

That's Why "A Daughter of Luxury" Is Different From Most Photoplays

"Making 'A Daughter of Luxury' different from any other picture ever made is the unique role played by Agnes Ayres, the star in this magnificent photoplay production, which is commencing at the Empress Theatre Wednesday and Thursday next.

In this story Mary Fenton has been trained to do nothing except to be sweet and good and wear expensive garments. In short, she is a daughter of luxury. Mary's parents died and her inheritance proved to be nil. Mary is forced to live in a hall bedroom in a cheap lodging house. She is down to her last nickel and she owes her landlady room rent.

The landlady forces Mary out and she walks the streets hungry and vainly seeking work. She is almost ready to faint from hunger and fatigue when she accidentally meets Charlie Owen, a stranger, whom she mistakes for an acquaintance. But don't imagine Owen met her a job fell in love with and married her. Rather, he got her into much trouble which began when in innocent circumstances she was discovered by a cousin friend of Owen's in his room with her hair down putting on her shoes. As a result of this she is forced to pose as a wealthy heiress. Her imposture is revealed and there is more trouble, excitingly topped when she is accused of being implicated in a jewel robbery.

There does come on the scene later a new young man, but it is Mary herself who pulls her reputation out of the fire. Miss Ayres has an admirer, a young man, which is called Edward Mortimer, Tom Galtrey, Sylvia Ashton, Edna Pitts, Robert Schelle and Clarence Burton.

NOTH COSTUME OF RARE DESIGN

Belle Danahoe in "Singed Wings"

A moth costume, declared by artists and costumers to be one of the most beautiful ever designed, is an important accessory in "Singed Wings," Penryn Stanlaw's new production for Paramount featuring Belle Danahoe and Conrad Nagel. Miss Danahoe uses the costume for The Moth Dance, a dance creation in which she is given exceptional opportunity to display her terpsichorean talents.

Rivert Designs Costume Designed by B. Cory Kilvert, famous artist whose front page portraits and pictures have appeared in leading magazines throughout the country, the moth costume embodies in its make-up about 47 yards of silver-grey and black-grey georgette, about 24 yards Vailis, 20 yards of crepe fabric and about 70 yards of silver cord.

Belle of Grey Georgette
The bodice was made of light grey georgette with an under garment of pink silk. The necktie fringe, some 25 yards in length, was gathered around and around, forming a soft, flexible covering, the feather edges of which continually swayed in the slightest breeze with entrancing effect.

The moth wings, in which over 45 yards of silver grey and black-grey georgette were used, were doubled. The upper sides were Vailis crepe, but the under sides were of black-grey with colored cloth ornaments and spots sewed on by hand.

Silver Grey Hose and Shoes

Silver grey hose, full length, and silver grey ballet shoes complete the costume. The effect, when Miss Danahoe lifts her arms in the course of "The Moth Dance," for which the costume was designed, is of a huge and marvellously beautiful moth, such a one, indeed, as would cause the hearts of the most learned entomologists to flutter with the joy of a new and wondrous discovery.

Has Role of Dancer

In "Singed Wings," Miss Danahoe portrays the role of the daughter of a once proud and haughty Spanish family. The wealth has gone and Bonita is forced to dance in a cabaret on the edge of San Francisco to earn money to support herself and her aged grandfather. Don Jose della Cruz (played by Robert Brower), her dance is called "The Moth Dance," and it is in this creation that she wears the wonderful costume.

SPRING FASHION NEWS

F. Stone is in Sunburst, Montana, on a business trip.

Mrs. G. Smith went to Baltimore on business on Wednesday last.

Miss Jessie Bell and Wallace Bell, of Meadow Creek, were visitors with the Hunter family on Sunday.

Mrs. Wurmbley was taken to the Macleod hospital one day last week. Her friends will be glad to hear she is improving.

Mrs. Charles Gaultier and family have gone to Helena, Montana, to join Mr. Gaultier, in which city they will in future reside.

Mrs. F. Stone, Mr. H. Stone, Mrs. Dilworth and Mrs. Dillingham, were visitors at the T. M. Brown home on Sunday afternoon.

About twenty-five friends gave the Hunter family a surprise party on the night of the 5th. Games and dancing with refreshments served at an early hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Dilworth, Mrs. S. Dillingham and Miss Rose Stuckton, of Macleod, motored out to Hunter Bros. on Sunday last and spent the afternoon, returning in the evening.

Scene is Beautiful

The scene, as it comes in "Singed Wings," which comes to the Empress Theatre next Monday is one of exquisite beauty. Once seen, it will be talked about, for not only does it have beauty of appearance, but it is set off to excellent advantage by the grace and personality of Miss Danahoe.

Additional Locals

Joe Grier has returned to Banhurst after spending a week in Macleod.

Mr. Hutchison, Inspector of Schools was in Macleod on Tuesday on business.

The Misses Stephenson of Granum were visitors in Macleod over the week-end.

Miss Georgia Davis was in town on Monday returning by car to Granum after the dance.

Miss Jenny Hayes of Calgary was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Bruce for a few days last week.

Mrs. M. Scheer has returned to her home in Macleod after spending a few days in Milk River with friends.

Eric Davis has returned to Edmonton and will spend the summer at his mother's ranch east of Macleod.

D. M. Leyden, of Granum, was in town on Monday night and attended the dance held in the G. W. V. A. hall.

Mr. Chapman, from the Department of Municipal Affairs, Edmonton, was a visitor in Macleod on Monday of this week.

Miss Madge Benson returned to Nobleford Monday night after spending the week-end at her home in Macleod.

Harold Milburn returned to Champion on Monday night's train after spending the week-end at his home in Macleod.

Mr. Swan, a former teller in the Canadian Bank of Commerce here was in town this week renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Conway of Nobleford returned to Macleod on Saturday afternoon returning to Nobleford the same evening.

I don't forget the big dance to be held in the G. W. V. A. hall on the 24th of May. Good music, good eats and a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Clements, of Granum, returned to Macleod on Monday to take in the dance given by the Vets in the G. W. V. A. hall.

Mrs. Roy McFarquhar returned to her home in Aldridge on Tuesday morning.

derwent a serious operation last Friday morning for appendicitis, will be pleased to learn that he is now doing nicely.

Dennis Macleod and Jerry Whitlock left Lethbridge last week to motor to California where they expect to remain some time. Mr. Macleod and Mr. Whitlock are well known in Macleod having worked around here all last summer.

Steps have been taken to form a grass band in Macleod, a meeting of a number of those interested having been held with that end in view on Tuesday evening of this week. The next meeting will be held on the evening of Tuesday next, the 15th inst., in the Armory Hall, at 8 p.m., when all interested in the movement are invited to be present.

Mrs. M. Hill was pleasantly surprised last Friday evening when the Junior Girls' Guild of the Presbyterian Church met at her home on Twenty-eight street and presented her with a beautiful illuminated address and hand painted cup and saucer in recognition of devoted services to the girls during the winter in the matter of entertainments, concerts and pastimes. Mrs. Hill was presented with a prettily decorated pin tray, while Mrs. F. Morris was the recipient of a prettily bon bon dish, for the assistance they have given the girls in these instances. A social time in which dainty refreshments were served, brought to a close a most enjoyable evening.

Lawyer (to applicant for position.)
—Yes, I need an office boy. Are you troubled?

Boy.—Yes, sir; but I ain't troubled enough to hurt your business.

REACH & COMPANY, LTD.

DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, ETC.
GROCERIES.

This week we have Flower, Ryan and Shorts

Spring is here in earnest, bringing tribute in Bata and new Ventables. Look at the variety to choose from, to renew your blood.
Spinach, Celery, Cauliflowers, Asparagus, Green Onions, Lettuce and Potatoes. Fresh Strawberries, the pioneers of the fruit world.
Bananas, the old reliable, Oranges, Apples, etc.

Dry Goods to the Front

Our old stock of House Dresses was cleaned out at ridiculous prices to make room for the New Styles. Some of the styles are catching. The variety of colors are enticing. If a woman knew how irresistible she looks in the house with a nice, wide, short sleeve, rolling the pie paste, showing the dimple in her elbow, she would be very particular in the choice of a Dress for the house. You please your children and tempt your husband.

Children's and Misses' Dresses

In Serge and Checks. A few left over at Half-price. Less than our actual cost.

Hats and Caps for the kiddies in straws, tweeds and wash goods.

Boots, Shoes and Slippers

We always have odd lines to clean out. Manufacturers are constantly changing. It is almost impossible to sort up in sizes, so it is up to us to order months ahead and guess the sizes likely to be sold. Half the time we send an order only one or two pairs come, balance to follow, is the reply. The customer can't wait, so that time is incomplete, hence the reason for clearing these odd lines at cost.
Always look for Bargains in our windows. Something fresh every week.
